

Geography

In geography this term, we will cover:

- Human and physical geography:

- identify seasonal and daily weather patterns in the United Kingdom and the location of hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles
- wild weather patterns(hurricanes)

-Geographical skills and fieldwork:

- use world maps, atlases and globes to identify the United Kingdom and its countries

Literacy

This term we will be covering the following units:

- Fiction : Weather stories
- Non-chronological report: Weather Report
- Significant authors – stories by Julia Donaldson
- Non-Fiction – Animal/Insect Factfile
- Poetry – Riddles
- Explanations – Life cycles

WILD and WONDERFUL Y1 SPRING TERM 2019

Science

SEASONAL CHANGES: AUTUMN & WINTER

- Characteristics of seasons
- Compare the differences between the seasons

LIVING THINGS:

ANIMALS INCLUDING HUMANS:

- Basic Animal Identification; fish, amphibians, reptiles, birds and mammals
- Herbivores, Carnivores and Omnivores
- Humans - Body parts and Senses

RE

CHRISTIANITY:

- What can we learn from Jesus and Saint Francis?

Easter – Palm Sunday

- Why was Jesus welcomed like a King by the crowds on Palm Sunday?

Art

- Observational drawings, paintings and sculptures of mini beast and animals
- Use and range of materials to develop and make products, e.g. paper mache insects

PSHE

In PSHE we will be learning about:

- Our dreams and goals
- How to celebrate our success
- Staying healthy
- Personal hygiene

PE

- Gymnastics - Travelling
- Games
 - Bouncing & Catching
 - Receiving Hands & Feet

ICT

Graphics: We are painters

- Paint/Print/2Paint
A Picture/Fresh
Paint/
- IWB software/
- Word